MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST
BYLAWS

Article I
PURPOSE AND DEFINITIONS

1. The purpose of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ as stated in its charter (1799) is "diffusing the knowledge of the Gospel of Jesus Christ ... and in concert with other ecclesiastical bodies for the general increase of Christian union and spiritual efficiency and the advancement of Christ's Kingdom on earth."

2. The local church is the basic unit of the life and organization of the United Church of Christ. It is autonomous and has the power of self-determination in all matters.

3. An Association is composed of all local churches in a geographical section of the Conference, of all ordained ministers holding standing therein, of all commissioned ministers of that Association, and of those licensed ministers who have been granted voting membership in that Association.

   An Association may include Congregational Christian churches which are not part of the United Church of Christ, yet are in voluntary fellowship with and are recognized by the Association.

4. The name of this corporation is the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, herein referred to as the "Conference." The Conference is that body of the United Church of Christ which is composed of all local churches in a geographical area, all ordained ministers holding standing in its Associations, all commissioned ministers in its Associations, and those licensed ministers who have been granted voting membership in its Associations.

   It joins with other Conferences and agencies of the United Church of Christ for the advancement of God's work in this world.

5. An Area is established by the Board of Directors and is composed of an Association or Associations informally grouped together for the convenience of the Conference.

Article II
DENOMINATIONAL BASIS

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

Article III
DOCTRINAL BASIS

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our forebears confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

He noted the successful completion of the searches for a Minister and President and for an Associate Conference Minister in the Metropolitan Boston Area; the ongoing searches in the Northeast and Western Area; the upcoming search in the Central Area; and the realignment of the Framingham staff caused by the announced retirement of Ms. Susannah Baker.

The internship was the result of a partnership of the Massachusetts Conference, the Metropolitan Boston Association, and the local church. Mr. Morisse gave a summary of his year of study, noting that there was no programmatic answer but that churches needed to find the young adults of the community and determine what their needs are. Congregations must create spaces where everyone, including young adults, can feel welcome, empowered, and nourished.

Mr. Bode then gave his report as Interim Minister and President of the Conference, describing the year in terms of vision, leadership, and finances. Referring to the ongoing implementation of the vision of the Conference, he lifted up work being done in leadership development, evangelism, justice, youth and young adult ministries, and communication. In speaking of the leadership of the Conference, Mr. Bode praised the work of the search committees, the guidance of the Board of Directors, and the energy of executive staff. He took the opportunity to introduce the Rev. Mr. Thomas Clough, newly appointed Associate Conference Minister in the Metropolitan Boston Area. Reporting on the finances of the Conference, Mr. Bode spoke of the annual fund, the capital campaign, and planned giving. The Moderator called upon the Rev. Ms. Wendy VanderHart, Mr. Wayne Frigard, and Ms. Stahleker, members of the Board of Directors for presentation of the proposed Conference budget. Noting that "A budget is a tool for mission and ministry," Ms. VanderHart offered delegates a time to share with one another conversation about times when their congregations had received mission or ministry from the Conference. Ms. Stahleker reviewed the proposed budget, noting that institutional costs had risen 2.5% and program costs had risen 2.5%. Personnel costs represented the largest increase, approximately 10%, in order to begin to bring compensation in line with larger local churches and similar positions in other organizations. It was noted that currently in order for a pastor of a larger congregation to become an Area Minister, he/she would be forced to accept a 20% cut in income. Mr. Frigard concluded the presentation with a review of the votes before the 202nd Annual Meeting.

The Moderator then introduced the keynote speaker for the 202nd Annual Meeting, Rev. Tom Bandy, vice president and senior partner of Easum, Bandy & Associates. Mr. Bandy spoke on "Liberating Lydia: Spiritual Entrepreneurs in the new Apostolic Age," comparing the Biblical story of Lydia to the emerging church today. He noted that churches today are moving from an age of spiritual uniformity to an age of spiritual ferment. Because people want spiritual help in climbing higher and going deeper churches must be continually learning and helping their members, both clergy and laity, to continually improve and expand their skills. In addition, in order to grow churches must offer multiple options in order to reach a wider variety of worshippers. Mr. Bandy suggested that people today are longing for the impact of the holy and that churches need to be about personal hope rather than a feeling of belonging. He urged congregations to being with a biblical vision and, looking outward, do solid research in ways to increase adult faith formation and thereby increase mission and service. A question and answer period followed the presentation.

The Moderator introduced Mr. Carl McDonald, Associate for Youth and Young Adult Ministries, who gave a slide presentation of the recent youth mission trip to Tarboro, North Carolina with Habitat for Humanity.

The Rev. Mr. Richard Sparrow, Associate Conference Minister in the Central Area, and Ms. Susannah Baker, Associate Conference Minister for Policy and Administration, were honored in separate presentations as both have submitted their resignations from the Conference staff. Mr. Sparrow will be taking a position in the national setting of the United Church of Christ and Ms. Baker is retiring.

Mr. Bode was then called upon to recognize those people who had been ordained within the past year. He honored those people who were celebrating 50 years of ordained ministry in 2001. The Rev. Mr. Emil Beck, the Rev. Mr. Wallace Cedarleaf, the Rev. Mr. David Jordan, the Rev. Mr. Arthur Kolsti, and the Rev. Mr. Gordon Newell were unable to be present. The Rev. The Moderator then called upon the Rev. Mr. William Fleming, a member of the Nominating Committee, to present the slate of nominees for Conference leadership positions on boards, committees, and commissions. Mr. Fleming noted that the Nominating Committee recognized the need for work in order to provide diversity on the various groups. There was in-depth discussion about the lack of persons of color on the Board of Directors. As there were no further nominations, it was moved, seconded, and voted to close nominations. There was then extensive discussion about the method of election and it was determined that the entire slate should be voted as a whole by a show of vote cards. It was moved, seconded and voted to elect the slate as presented.

The Moderator then called on Mr. Frigard to present the proposal for increased Fellowship Dues. A substitute resolution was submitted calling for a $3.00 increase in Fellowship Dues beginning in 2002. After some debate the substitute resolution was voted. It was then moved, seconded, and voted that

WHEREAS, Christians are called to respond as faithful stewards by taking personal and collective actions to defend and heal the earth; and

WHEREAS, "An Open Letter to the Religious Community" signed in 1990 by 32 scientists of great stature and 271 spiritual leaders from 83 countries urged people of faith to acknowledge that the environmental crisis is so grave as to have "a religious as well as a scientific dimension"; and

WHEREAS, In response to the "Open Letter," the National Council of Churches, U.S. Catholic Conference, Coalition for the Environment and Jewish Life, and Evangelical Environmental Network founded the National Religious Partnership for the Environment, whose goal is "to weave the mission of care for God's creation across all areas of organized religion"; and

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, That the 202nd Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ urges:

1. The Environmental Task Team of the Commission for Mission and Justice Ministries of the Massachusetts Conference to reach out to all Massachusetts Conference United Church of Christ member congregations with a program of environmental education and action; and

Appendix C Resolution Calling for a More Just, Humane Direction For Economic Globalization

WHEREAS, The growth of "economic globalization" has raised the quality of life for many people (mainly in First World countries), it has lowered it for many others (mainly in Third World countries); it has lowered costs of food and clothing for some, while lowering wages and levels of human rights for others; it has created technological wonders for some areas, while allowing the destruction of rain forests and increases in hunger in others; and

WHEREAS, With the rise of globalization, concern over the major International Financial Institutions (IFIs), such as the World Trade Organization, the World Bank, the International Monetary Fund, NAFTA, and others, has brought protests in numerous countries, as local laborers, merchants, farmers, human rights workers, environmentalists, and others have begun to see its effects on their countries including loss of sovereignty and democracy; and

WHEREAS, The rules for international commerce set by these institutions have contributed to the increases of poverty and environmental degradation in the Third World (for example, loan repayments, required by the G-7 for external debt payments, are ten times higher relative to income than the Allies required of post war Germany; "Structural Adjustment Programs," required by the IMF to qualify for debt relief, are targeted to raise unemployment and lower wages; tariff resolutions, required by the WTO to enhance "free trade," lower environmental standards, and allow powerful Trans-national corporations to compete on a "level playing field" with small emerging companies); and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, That the 202nd Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference UCC encourages our denominational leaders in offices of Global Education and Advocacy Ministry, Justice and Witness Ministries, and others to work for legislative policies which advocate a humane and ecologically sound direction for economic and corporate globalization efforts.

Appendix D

2002 Compensation Guidelines for MACUCC Clergy for use with Clergy Compensation Booklet available from the Commission on Leadership Development, MACUCC

The 202nd Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, concerned with the growth of its churches and the compensation of its ordained leaders, recommends that all congregations meet the goals as outlined in Guidelines for Clergy Compensation. The guidelines apply to all full-time pastors, associates and assistants, both settled and interim.

Because the pastor of a church is required by the Associations of the Massachusetts Conference, United Church of Christ to be a highly educated and trained professional, the salary and housing package for pastors should be congruent with the compensation of other similarly trained professionals in the community. The total compensation package could be considered at least equal to that of professionals requiring three or more years of post graduate training such as school superintendents, secondary and middle school principals, engineers and other professionals in administrative positions, showing consideration for years of service, special skills and training, and natural aptitude. The federal tax structure is unique for clergy, and the compensation package should be designed in such a way as to maximize the pastor's income.

The work schedules and compensation packages of local pastors should be healthy for the pastor and for the church. That would require a balance of time spent in the church's ministry and time spent with family and friends -- a balance of work and recreation, a balance of exercising the body and the mind, a balance of care of others and care for self.

Some churches, because of their smaller membership and/or financial constraints, may be unable to provide an adequate compensation package for full time pastoral service. They are encouraged to meet with the Area Minister and/or Stewardship and Financial Planning Consultants from the Conference to review their situation. They may consider creative options, such as calling a part-time, bi-vocational pastor or sharing a pastor with another congregation in the area in order to combine resources to offer adequate compensation. A congregation should not expect a pastor to work full time for part-time compensation.

Be it resolved that the 202nd Annual Meeting recommends:

1. Churches pay a minimum entry-level cash salary according to the following table for a full-time pastor;
2. Churches provide either:
    a. a PARSONAGE with a furnishings allowance, all utilities, and an equity development plan which will ensure the pastor has housing assets in retirement; or

b. a CASH PACKAGE sufficient to allow the minister to buy, furnish and maintain a median-priced house in the church's community; the minimum cash package shall be no less than 1/100 per month of the value of a median-priced home in the community; (for example: if a median-priced house in a community is $150,000, the church's minimum cash package for housing would be $1,500 per month, or $18,000 per annum)

3. Full benefits and professional expenses be provided, as listed below; benefits and professional expenses are not to be considered part of the cash salary, but are part of the cost of having an ordained minister;

4. Churches already at or above the minimum and also fully providing all benefits and professional expenses as outlined in below give at least a cost of living increase and consider a merit increase also;

5. The work schedule of local pastors be a maximum average of 40-50 hours per week with no more than 3 evenings in a given week; in addition, pastors take at least 1½ days off per week.

CASH SALARY RANGES

The cash salary ranges do NOT include housing, benefits, professional or any other expenses. In calculating years of ordained experience, churches may wish to include other relevant life and work experience.

Number of Church Members	Years of Ordained Experience 0 -3	4 - 10	over 10
0 - 150	$25,000 - $37,000	$27,000 - $40,000	$29,000 - $43,000
150 - 300	$25,000 - $39,000	$28,500 - $42,250	$31,000 - $46,000
300 - 500	$25,000 - $41,000	$31,000 - $46,000	$36,000 - $53,000
500 - 1,000	$25,000 - $44,000	$34,000 - $50,500	$41,000 - $61,000
over 1,000	$25,000 - $45,000	$37,000 - $55,000	$46,000 - $68,500

BENEFITS AND PROFESSIONAL EXPENSES

A. SOCIAL SECURITY ALLOWANCE

Since clergy are treated as self-employed for social security purposes, pastors must pay the current 15.3% on the cash salary plus housing allowance or on cash salary plus the fair market rental value of the parsonage plus utilities. Therefore it is recommended that churches pay 7.65% of the pastor's salary plus housing allowance or, where a parsonage is provided, 7.65% of fair market rental value plus cost of utilities for social security. This is taxable income which must be reported on a clergy person's tax returns.

B. BENEFITS

1. annuity - minimum of 14% of base salary plus housing allowance (or minimum of 14% of 130% of base salary if parsonage is provided) paid quarterly to the UCC Pension Board [1]
2. life insurance and disability benefit plan - disability income insurance and decreasing term life insurance through UCC program; cost is 1% of base salary plus housing allowance or, where a parsonage is provided, of 130% of base salary
3. group life insurance - additional decreasing term life insurance available through the Pension Boards for $50 per year
4. medical/dental insurance - available through the UCC Pension Boards
5. holiday and vacation time - usual holidays (or compensation time) and 4 weeks vacation per year
6. continuing education time
7. sabbatical time and funds
8. sick time - up to 30 days per year
9. maternity/paternity leave, including for adoption

For more detail, see Clergy Compensation Booklet

C. PROFESSIONAL COSTS

Tax law allows deduction of business expenses on Schedule A only after the minister has spent more than 2% of family adjusted gross income on such expenses. THEREFORE it is important that a church establish an "Accountable Reimbursement Plan" which will reimburse or pay directly all costs which the pastor incurs for "doing business" for the church, so that the pastor is not paying income tax for church expenses. These should include but not be limited to:

1. auto reimbursement - for use of personal car at current IRS rate plus tolls and parking, or an automobile provided by the church
2. professional expenses - all expenses allowed by the IRS
3. continuing education allowance

For more detail see Clergy Compensation Booklet

For reference, the following is an illustration of what is needed to fund the POSITION of a pastor (salary, housing, AND benefits and professional expenses) for a minister with 12 years experience, receiving a mid-range salary, serving in a church with 150-300 members:

COMPENSATION:
salary	$38,500
housing allowance (for those not in a parsonage, $150,000 house)	18,000
BENEFITS:
annuity (salary + housing x 14%) [1]	7,910
life insurance and disability benefit plan (salary + housing x 1%)	565
group life insurance 50
medical/dental insurance (family plan)	9,030
social security offset (salary + housing x 7.65%)[2]	4,322
PROFESSIONAL COSTS
professional expenses 1,500
continuing education 750
auto reimbursement (14,000 miles/year @ $.34.5/mile)	4,830
total needed to fund the position of minister	$85,457

It is understood that some churches may not be able to meet these guidelines immediately, and may need instead to institute them over a period of 3-5 years. It will be important in these instances to project a cost of living increase for each year and to make the necessary projection of total dollars above where the compensation package is at present. Then simply divide by the number of years it will take to reach the goal, and increase by that figure the annual compensation package over the 3-5 year period.

[1] This is the standard formula recommended by the UCC Pension Boards for calculating the annual church contribution to a pastor's annuity. However, in some specific situations where a pastor's compensation package is heavily weighted toward a housing allowance, a tax accountant should be consulted to assure that the annuity payment does not exceed the maximum percent of taxable compensation allowed by the IRS for contribution to a 403(b) tax sheltered annuity.

[2] This is taxable income which must be included with taxable wages on the W-2 form given to the pastor and reported on a clergyperson's tax returns.

MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL FUND

Professionally managed, socially responsible investment trusts with competitive returns.

The EQUITY FUND (First Trust) is managed by State Street Global Advisors using their socially responsible equity strategy to preserve capital while seeking appreciation through a diversified portfolio of securities in sound businesses. Its objectives are to exceed the total return of the S&P 500 Index with a lower risk profile. The investment process employs the strategies of macro analysis industry selection (top-down) and security analysis stock selection (bottom-up) to construct a trust portfolio from a socially screened universe of investment grade securities.

The FIXED INCOME FUND (Second Trust) is managed by Dwight Asset Management Company to preserve capital and provide a high level of current income through a diversified portfolio of investment grade fixed income securities.
